Title:	Gujarat: 20 students at GNLU fall ill with food poisoning
Action By CSU, IDSP -NCDC	Information communicated to DSU-Gandhi Nagar, SSU-Gujarat

Over 20 students at Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) have fallen ill in past couple of days due to food poisoning. The university authorities confirmed the news and said that adequate action is being taken. They added that one student might need hospitalization after medical opinion as others are stable and are given medication.

According to sources close to the development, a fresher party was organized at the university on Monday evening. After the event, several complained of stomach ache, vomiting and other symptoms of food poisoning. As the number of cases got escalated on Wednesday, the officials got alarmed.

T G Jagadeesh Chandra, registrar of the university, said that a doctor is available on the campus round the clock. "The campus mess is under probe as all the students affected are provided treatment," he said. Sources said that the students are also being asked about what they had consumed in a couple of days and whether it was from outside the campus.
