Title:	60-70 People fall sick after eating Mahashivratri Prasad in Rajasthan's Dungarpur district
Action By CSU, IDSP -NCDC	Information communicated to DSU-Dungarpur, SSU-Rajasthan

Recently big news has come from Dungarpur in Rajasthan. On Thursday, many people became ill after eating 'Prasad' of Mahashivratri. In this case, Aspur CMHO said, '60-70 people are sick, this number is likely to increase. It's a case of food poisoning. We are collecting samples. Teams from 3-4 hospitals are working here.' Yesterday was the festival of Mahashivaratri, due to which a large number of devotees were seen in the major Shiva temples of Jaipur, the capital of Rajasthan. During this time, a large number of people, including women, anointed Lord Shiva with milk, water, ghee, honey, etc. in the main Tadkeshwar temple situated on the wide road of Jaipur.

With this, everyone worshiped Bholenath. During this, an echo of Har Har Mahadev was heard in many pagodas in the capital. At the same time, Governor Kalraj Mishra performed pooja along with the family on the occasion of Mahashivaratri at Raj Bhavan. Kalraj Mishra anointed the Shivling and wished for the happiness and prosperity of the people. Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot also extended her heartfelt greetings and best wishes to everyone. Indeed, he told all the people, "Lord Shiva is the source of inspiration of energy and power. He carried the poison in his gorge for the welfare of the universe. Lord Shiva inspires us to sacrifice, surrender and be ever ready for the welfare of the living beings."

However, the havoc of corona infection has not reduced this time. In Rajasthan, 203 new cases of coronavirus infection came on Thursday, taking the total number of infected people to 3,22,281 in the state. With this, 2,789 deaths have occurred in the state so far due to corona infection.
