Title:	30 students fall ill; food poisoning suspected in district Mandya, Karnataka
Action By CSU, IDSP -NCDC	Information communicated to DSU- Mandya , SSU- Karnataka

Six girls of Kittur Rani Chennamma Residential School at H.K. Veerannagowda Nagara in Maddur, were admitted to hospital late on Sunday with symptoms of suspected food poisoning. Chicken curry and rice were served to the girls for dinner. As many as 30 girls, after consuming the meals, developed vomiting and nausea. While 24 were treated as out-patients, six were admitted at the government hospital at Maddur, sources in the Department of Social Welfare said. There are 243 higher primary and high school girls studying at the school. According to hospital sources, the girls were recovering.

B. Malathi, Deputy Director, Social Welfare Department, was not available for comment. Raghunandan, Deputy Director of Public Instruction, said he was not aware of the incident. "I will go to the school and the hospital, meet the girls and initiate suitable measures," the officer said.
